6 NEGROES CLOSETED ARE KILLED WITH TEDDY

RACE RIOT IN MENDENHALL, MISS., HAS STIRRED THAT PART OF THE STATE—MOB HUNTING FOR OTHER NEGROES.

(Herald Special.)
Mendenhall, Miss., July 2.—Race riots which started in Simpson county late yesterday with the killing of one negro named Skiffer, were resumed this morning with renewed vigor, and already six negroes have been killed.
An infuriated mob is scouring the country for other negroes who will be killed if located.

Later.—Eight men, including two whites, have been killed in the riot troubles which have now assumed the proportions of a warfare. The whites are pursuing a gang of negroes through the swamps.

ing a total of sixty victims since the NATURE OF CONFERENCE BE-TWEEN ROOSEVELT AND PROM-INENT KANSAS INSURGENTS NOT MADE PUBLIC.

(Herald Special.)
Oyster Bay, July 2.—Three of the biggest men of Kansas, as viewed from the insurgent camp, Senator Bristow and Congressmen Madison and Murdock, are closeted with former President Roosevelt at Sagamore Hill today. That their presence is considered important by Roosevelt is indicated by the manner in which the former president announced to the newspaper men their coming before their arrival. He announced that the guests were coming, but did not want any publicity made of the fact until they had actually arrived. He declined to discuss the nature of the mission. Roosevelt assured the newspaper men that after the conference was concluded he would be glad to talk to them about it. It is declared that the meeting will be far-reaching in its results. It is also claimed that the Kansans are here for the specific purpose of urging Roosevelt to declare his views on politics.

Must Stop the Boom.

(Herald Special.)
Oyster Bay, July 2.—Roosevelt today wrote a letter to the secretary of the Utica Republican Club in which he said he could not possibly accept the nomination for governor of New York and urging that the boom in that direction be stopped at once.

Effected By the Heat.

Rome, July 2.—Pope Pius X today had a fainting spell as a result of the extreme heat. His condition is not regarded as serious.
